
Every Stick is Unique

by Sandy Dixon and Kacie Sitts

I found a stick layin' on the ground
Mama said- what's that you found?

It's a magical, mystical, wizard's wand
No, it's a bridge for a frog in a pond

Every stick is unique
It can be anything you seek

It's the wall of a fort not yet made
No, it's the seat of swing in the shade

Every stick is unique
It can be anything you seek

I use it to hike or take a walk
No, it's what my teacher gives me when it's my turn to talk

Every stick is unique
It can be anything you seek
